

Title I Parent Involvement Policy
Alfred E. Upton Elementary School
School District of the City of Royal Oak Schools
2023-2024

The involvement of parents is an essential component of a school's program for ensuring success for students. The school district Parent Involvement Policy is available on the district's website for review.

Upton's Parent Involvement Policy:

- A Parent Compact reviewing home, school, and student responsibilities is sent home upon entry into the program. Parents are asked to return the signed compact indicating their support of their child in the Title I program.
- Parents are involved in program planning, review and improvement
 - Title I Advisory Committee Meetings held twice a year
 - Parent Surveys provide opportunities to give feedback and suggestions regarding the program.
- Parents should direct questions concerning parent involvement to the school's Title I Teacher.
- Parents receive timely responses to concerns and suggestions via email, phone conversations and written communication.
- Flexible Title I meetings/workshops are developed based on the needs of the Upton community.
- Parents receive information on school performance, individual assessment, and curriculum through:
 - Curriculum Guides
 - Report Cards
 - Conferences
 - Newsletters
 - School/District Website
 - PA 25 Reports
 - PTA Meetings
- Parents are provided with annual statements regarding the highly qualified status of staff. Questions regarding staff may be directed to the district personnel office.
